

PROVIDING FOR THE CONSIDERATION OF H.R. 775, YEAR
2000 READINESS AND RESPONSIBILITY ACT

MAY 11, 1999.—Referred to the House Calendar and ordered to be printed

Mr. DREIER, from the Committee on Rules, submitted the following

REPORT

[To accompany H. Res. 166]

The Committee on Rules, having had under consideration House Resolution 166, by a nonrecord vote, report the same to the House with the recommendation that the resolution be adopted.

SUMMARY OF PROVISIONS OF RESOLUTION

The resolution provides for the consideration of H.R. 775, the “Year 2000 Readiness and Responsibility Act,” under a structured rule. The rule provides one hour of general debate divided equally between the chairman and ranking minority member of the Committee on the Judiciary.

The rule makes in order as an original bill for the purpose of amendment the Committee on the Judiciary amendment in the nature of a substitute now printed in the bill modified by the amendments printed in part 1 of this report. The rule also makes in order only those amendments printed in part 2 of this report.

The rule provides that amendments made in order may be offered only in the order printed in the report, may be offered only by a Member designated in the report, shall be considered as read, shall be debatable for the time specified in the report equally divided and controlled by the proponent and an opponent, shall not be subject to amendment, and shall not be subject to a demand for division of the question in the House or in the Committee of the Whole.

The rule allows the Chairman of the Committee of the Whole to postpone votes during consideration of the bill, and to reduce voting time to five minutes on a postponed question if the vote follows a fifteen minute vote. Finally, the rule provides one motion to recommit with or without instructions.

SUMMARY OF AMENDMENTS MADE IN ORDER

Part 1—Amendments modifying the amendment on the nature of a substitute

To modify section 303 to correct a mistake introduced into the text of H.R. 775 when technical and conforming changes were made to the bill ordered reported by the Committee.

To strike section 304(a) relating to the Year 2000 Recovery Fund.

Part 2—Amendments made in order under the rule

Davis (VA)—(20 Minutes): Defines what types of damages are covered under the bill thereby giving uniformity to the legislation, and eliminates possible confusion by courts in states that allow for other types of monetary awards, such as restitution or discouragement of profit; and changes the effective date from February 22, 1999 to January 1, 1999.

Moran (VA)—(20 Minutes): Exempts all claims, counterclaims, cross-claims, and third party claims that arise out of an underlying action for personal injury.

Jackson-Lee—(20 Minutes): Adds clarifying language that states that the “particularity” requirement in section 101 still allows the notification to be drafted using layman’s terms without specialized and technical details.

Scott—(20 Minutes): Strikes Section 304 relating to “Damages Limitation.”

Nadler—(20 Minutes): Strikes the section of the bill that limits class action lawsuits.

Lofgren/Conyers/Boucher—(60 Minutes): Amendment in the Nature of a Substitute. Provides for specific pleading requirements, a duty to mitigate damages, and limits class action claims to those involving material defects; specifies that contracts shall be fully enforceable and that defendants may raise the defense of impossibility or commercial impracticability, notwithstanding any changes in state law after January 1, 1999; provides that in tort and other non-contractual cases, there shall be a reasonable apportionment of liability by co-defendants and limits plaintiffs from asserting claims for economic damages that are not covered by contract. Eliminates sections that (1) created an unprecedented defense for undefined conduct, namely, “reasonable efforts”; (2) placed various limitations and dollar caps on the collection of punitive damages; (3) capped the liability of officers and directors; (4) federalized class actions; and (5) mandated a “loser pays” mechanism.

SEC. 2. FINDINGS, PURPOSES, AND SCOPE.

(a) FINDINGS.—Congress finds the following:

(1) Many information technology systems, devices, and programs are not capable of recognizing certain dates in 1999 and after December 31, 1999, and will read dates in the year 2000 and thereafter as if those dates represent the year 1900 or thereafter or will fail to process those dates.

(2) If not corrected, the year 2000 problem described above and the resulting failures could incapacitate systems that are essential to the functioning of markets, commerce, consumer products, utilities, Government, and safety and defense systems, in the United States and throughout the world.

(3) It is in the national interest that producers and users of technology products concentrate their attention and resources in the time remaining before January 1, 2000, on assessing, fixing, testing, and developing contingency plans to address any and all outstanding year 2000 computer date change problems, so as to minimize possible disruptions associated with computer failures.

(4) The year 2000 computer date change problems may adversely affect businesses and other users of technology products in a unique fashion, prompting unprecedented litigation and the delays, expense, uncertainties, loss of control, adverse publicity, and animosities that frequently accompany litigation could exacerbate the difficulties associated with the Year 2000 date change and compromise efforts to resolve these difficulties.

(b) PURPOSES.—Based upon the power contained in article I, section 8, clause 3 of the Constitution of the United States, the purposes of this Act are—

(1) to establish uniform legal standards that give all businesses and users of technology products reasonable incentives to solve year 2000 computer date-change problems before they develop;

(2) to encourage the resolution of year 2000 computer date-change disputes involving economic damages without recourse to unnecessary, time consuming, and wasteful litigation; and

(3) to lessen burdens on interstate commerce by discouraging insubstantial lawsuits, while also preserving the ability of individuals and businesses that have suffered real injury to obtain complete relief.

(c) SCOPE.—Except as provided in section 201(c) or other provisions of this Act, this Act applies only to claims for commercial loss.

SEC. 4. PREEMPTION OF STATE LAW.

TITLE I—COOLING OFF PERIOD

SEC. 101. NOTICE AND OPPORTUNITY TO CURE.

(a) NOTICE OF COOLING OFF PERIOD.—

(1) IN GENERAL.—Before filing a year 2000 claim, except an action for a claim that seeks only injunctive relief, a prospective plaintiff shall be required to provide to each prospective defendant a verifiable written notice that identifies and describes with particularity, to the extent possible before discovery—

(2) the prospective plaintiff may commence a year 2000 civil action against such prospective defendant immediately upon the termination of that waiting period.

(d) FAILURE TO PROVIDE NOTICE.—

(1) IN GENERAL.—Subject to subsections (c) and (e), a defendant may treat a complaint filed by the plaintiff as a notice required under subsection (a) by so informing the court and the plaintiff if the defendant determines that a plaintiff has commenced a year 2000 civil action—

(A) without providing the notice specified in subsection (a); or

(B) before the expiration of the waiting period specified in subsection (a).

(2) STAY.—If a defendant elects under paragraph (1) to treat a complaint as a notice—

(B) the time for filing answers and all other pleadings shall be tolled during the applicable period.

(f) SANCTION FOR FRIVOLOUS INVOCATION OF THE STAY PROVISION.—If a defendant acts under subsection (d) to stay an action, and the court subsequently finds that the assertion by the defendant that the action is a year 2000 civil action was frivolous and made for the purpose of causing unnecessary delay, the court may impose a sanction, including an order to make payments to opposing parties in accordance with Rule 11 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure or applicable State rules of civil procedure.

(g) COMPUTATION OF TIME.—For purposes of this section, the rules regarding computation of time shall be governed by the applicable Federal or State rules of civil procedure.

(c) PAYMENT DATE.—If a dispute that is the subject of the complaint or responsive pleading is resolved through alternative dispute resolution as provided in subsection (a) or (b), the defendant shall pay any amount of funds that the defendant is required to pay the plaintiff under the settlement not later than 30 days after the date on which the parties settle the dispute, and all other terms shall be implemented as promptly as possible based upon the agreement of the parties, unless another period of time is agreed to by the parties or established by contract between the parties.

TITLE II—SPECIFIC PLEADINGS AND DUTY TO MITIGATE

SEC. 201. PLEADING REQUIREMENTS.

(a) NATURE AND AMOUNT OF DAMAGES.—In any year 2000 civil action in which a plaintiff seeks an award of money damages, the complaint shall state with particularity to the extent possible before discovery with regard to each year 2000 claim—

- (1) the nature and amount of each element of damages; and
- (2) the factual basis for the calculation of the damages.

(b) MATERIAL DEFECTS.—In any year 2000 civil action in which the plaintiff alleges that a product or service was defective, the complaint shall, with respect to each year 2000 claim—

- (2) the court finds that the alleged defect in the product or service was a material defect with respect to a majority of the members of the class.

This subsection applies to year 2000 claims for commercial loss and to year 2000 claims for loss or harm other than commercial loss.

(d) MOTION TO DISMISS; STAY OF DISCOVERY.—

(1) DISMISSAL FOR FAILURE TO MEET PLEADING REQUIREMENTS.—In any year 2000 civil action, the court shall, on the motion of any defendant, dismiss without prejudice any year 2000 claim asserted in the complaint if any of the requirements under subsection (a), (b), or (e) is not met with respect to the claim.

(2) STAY OF DISCOVERY.—Subject to the 90-day single period provisions of section 101(h), in any year 2000 civil action, all

(A) IN GENERAL.—

(i) TREATMENT OF EVIDENCE.— During the pendency of any stay of discovery entered under paragraph (2), unless otherwise ordered by the court, any party to the action shall treat the items described in clause (ii) as if they were a subject of a continuing request for production of documents from an opposing party under applicable Federal or State rules of civil procedure.

(I) are in the custody or control of the party described in clause (i); and

SEC. 301. CONTRACT PRESERVATION.

(a) IN GENERAL.—Subject to subsection (b), in resolving any year 2000 claim each written contractual term, including any limitation or exclusion of liability or disclaimer of warranty, shall be strictly enforced, unless the enforcement of that term would contravene applicable State law as of January 1, 1999.

(b) INTERPRETATION OF CONTRACT.—In any case in which a contract under subsection (a) is silent with respect to a particular issue, the interpretation of the contract with respect to that issue shall be determined by applicable law in effect at the time that the contract was entered into.

SEC. 302. IMPOSSIBILITY OR COMMERCIAL IMPRACTICABILITY.

(a) IN GENERAL.—In any year 2000 civil action in which a year 2000 claim is advanced alleging a breach of contract or related claim, in resolving that claim applicability of the doctrines of impossibility and commercial impracticability shall be determined by applicable law in existence on January 1, 1999.

(b) RULE OF CONSTRUCTION.—Nothing in this Act shall be construed as limiting or impairing a party's right to assert defenses based upon the doctrines referred to in subsection (a).

TITLE IV—YEAR 2000 CIVIL ACTIONS INVOLVING TORT AND OTHER NON-CONTRACTUAL CLAIMS

SEC. 401. FAIR SHARE LIABILITY.

(a) GENERAL RULE.—Subject to subsection (d), in any year 2000 civil action, the liability of each tort feisor or noncontractual defendant shall be joint and several, subject to the court's equitable discretion to determine, following upon a finding of proportional responsibility, that the liability of a tort feisor or noncontractual defendant (as the case may be) of minimal responsibility shall be several only and not joint.

(b) AMOUNT OF LIABILITY.—Each defendant that is severally liable in a year 2000 civil action shall be liable only for the amount of loss allocated to the defendant in direct proportion to the percentage of responsibility of the defendant (determined in accordance with subsection (c)) for such harm.

(c) DETERMINATION OF RESPONSIBILITY.—

(1) IN GENERAL.—In any year 2000 civil action, the court shall instruct the jury to answer special interrogatories, or if there is no jury, make findings, with respect to each defendant and plaintiff, and each of the other persons claimed by any of the parties to have caused or contributed to the loss incurred by the plaintiff, including persons who have entered into settlements with the plaintiff or plaintiffs, concerning the percentage of responsibility of that person, measured as a percentage of the total fault of all persons who caused or contributed to the total loss incurred by the plaintiff.

(2) CONTENTS OF SPECIAL INTERROGATORIES OR FINDINGS.—The responses to interrogatories, or findings, as appropriate, under paragraph (1) shall specify—

(A) the total amount of damages that the plaintiff is entitled to recover; and

(B) the percentage of responsibility of each person found to have caused or contributed to the loss incurred by the plaintiff or plaintiffs.

(3) FACTORS FOR CONSIDERATION.—In determining the percentage of responsibility under this paragraph, the trier of fact shall consider—

(A) the nature of the conduct of each person alleged to have caused or contributed to the loss incurred by the plaintiff; and

(B) the nature and extent of the causal relationship between the conduct of each such person and the damages incurred by the plaintiff or plaintiffs.

(d) SPECIAL RULES FOR JOINT LIABILITY.—

(1) IN GENERAL.—Notwithstanding subsection (a), in any case the liability of a defendant to which subsection (a) applies in

- (B) knowingly committed fraud.

- (C) knew that the plaintiff was reasonably likely to rely on the false statement.

(3) RECKLESSNESS.—For purposes of paragraph (1), reckless conduct by the defendant does not constitute either a specific intent to injure, or the knowing commission of fraud, by the defendant.

(e) CONTRIBUTION.—A defendant who is jointly and severally liable for damages in a year 2000 civil action may recover contribution for such damages from any other person who, if joined in the original action, would have been liable for the same damages. A claim for contribution shall be determined based on the percentage of responsibility of the claimant and of each person against whom a claim for such contribution is made.

(f) STATUTE OF LIMITATIONS FOR CONTRIBUTION.—An action for contribution under subsection (e) in connection with a year 2000 civil action may not be brought later than six months after the entry of a final, nonappealable judgment in the year 2000 civil action.

SEC. 402. ECONOMIC LOSSES.

(a) IN GENERAL.—Subject to subsection (b), a party to a year 2000 civil action may not recover economic losses for a year 2000 claim advanced in the action that is based on tort unless the party is able to show that at least one of the following circumstances exists:

- (1) The recovery of these losses is provided for in the contract to which the party seeking to recover such losses is a party.
- (2) If the contract is silent on those losses, and the application of the applicable Federal or State law that governed interpretation of the contract at the time the contract was entered into would allow recovery of such losses.
- (3) These losses are incidental to a claim in the year 2000 civil action based on personal injury caused by a year 2000 failure.
- (4) These losses are incidental to a claim in the year 2000 civil action based on damage to tangible property caused by a year 2000 failure.

(b) TREATMENT OF ECONOMIC LOSSES.—Economic losses shall be recoverable in a year 2000 civil action only if applicable Federal law, or applicable State law embodied in statute or controlling judicial precedent as of January 1, 1999, permits the recovery of such losses in the action.

TITLE V—EFFECTIVE DATE

SEC. 501. EFFECTIVE DATE.

This Act and the amendments made by this Act shall take effect on the date of enactment of this Act.
